

VR Surat played host to phase one of 'All About Eve', a thoughtfully planned event, solely for women. In association with the Max Store the Centre hosted cookery workshops by Swad Cooking Institute where experts showcased tri -colour inspired recipes which the ladies relished watching and learning.

VR Surat also organized a health session in association with Wama Wellness Centre on the significance of Menstrual Sanitation and Hygiene which highlighted interesting facts to all 300 women present. This was followed by fun interactions with everyone by the very popular RJ Meeit Mishra from RED FM 95.0 the official Radio partner for this event. To conclude the evening with fun and entertainment there was Tambola where winners from this group of ladies were given exclusive prizes of Home appliances.

The excitement still continues as the biggest attraction of the entire event was announced: VR Surat in collaboration with Inox Leisure Limited will hold a special screening of the movie "Padman" on 9th February, 2018 starring Akshay Kumar who talks about significance of menstrual sanitation on celluloid. All 300 women who attended the event will get a chance to enjoy the movie accompanied by some refreshments marking it as phase 2 of "All About Eve".
